Occupational Interests

The Interest section assesses the relative interests between the six interest areas. The top three interests for Ms. Vinson are shown here, along with the top three interests for the Medical Practice Manager (Demonstration) position. Note that Celeste shares TWO top interests with the requirements of this position.

TOP THREE areas of interest for Celeste Vinson.

TOP THREE areas of interest for the position of Medical Practice Manager (Demonstration).

Ms. Vinson's interests indicate a preference for work that involves sharing the goals and/or serving the needs of other people. Additionally, work that requires a fair amount of creativity in handling problem solving and developing innovative organizational methods can be motivational for her. She scored highest in the People Service, Financial and Creative themes on the ProfileXT.

With People Service as her primary area of interest, Ms. Vinson is likely to seek out activities that involve working with and serving others, whether team members, the company or customers. As her main area of interest, these kinds of activities will do best to motivate her. Secondly, she is interested in Financial/Administrative activities that generally involve organizing information. Such responsibilities may help to motivate her in what she does at work. Finally, her interest in Creative activities rounds out her profile of interests. It promotes a concentration in creative expression, trying novel approaches and appreciating the process of innovation. Although this interest area is not as crucial to overall job satisfaction as her stronger interests, it does play a role.

Notice:

As discussed in the User's Guide for this product, this job pattern approach to matching individuals to a position provides information of great value and should be an important part of the placement decision. However, the user is reminded that the results from any test should never make up more than a third of the final decision.

Interview Questions

Celeste Vinson scored outside the position match pattern in the following areas. When interviewing Celeste Vinson, you should consider the following information:

BEHAVIORAL TRAITS

On the Energy Level scale Ms. Vinson is below the designated Profile for this Job Match Pattern. This suggests that her capacity to endure hard work is less than the position typically requires and that she could have a problem with the high demands of this job. Discussions with her should explore the possibility that for Ms. Vinson, the energy required for this position may be above what she is willing to exert.

- What kind of experiences have you had involving multiple projects; how do you prefer to cope with the stress of such a situation?
- Tell me about a time when you had to cope with strict deadlines or time demands. Give me an example.
- We all have to make decisions on the job about the delicate balance between personal and work objectives. When do you feel you have had to make personal sacrifices in order to get the job done?
- Give me an example of any specific time in which you found it necessary to give long hours to the job and how you coped with the effect on your ability to perform.

Attitude – Tendency to have a positive attitude regarding people and outcomes.

Job Pattern 6-8 Score 5

While Ms. Vinson achieved an Attitude score comparable to most people, it is below the designated job profile for this position. This suggests that her positive outlook is below that of successful individuals in this position and that she could have a problem with maintaining an optimistic perspective when under stress. Discussions with her should explore the possibility that for Ms. Vinson, experiences like frustration and anxiety are a potential in this position.

- How often do you feel your work relies on the attitude that you present to others? Give an example.
- Give a real-world example of the effect of your attitude on a customer or client.
- Describe a past experience when changes were introduced suddenly. What did you do to comply and adapt?
- What role have you played in the recent past in which your team was unmotivated and how did you resolve the problem?

Decisiveness – Uses available information to make decisions quickly.

Job Pattern 5-7 Score 3

On the Decisiveness scale Ms. Vinson is below the designated Job Match Pattern. This suggests that she may respond more deliberately when making decisions than the position typically requires and that she could lack a sense of urgency. Discussions with her might explore the possibility that Ms. Vinson may be frustrated with the need for fast-paced decision-making.

- When a decision is needed, how do you prefer to tackle the problem?
- Tell me about a specific experience you have had in which it was necessary for you to react quickly because of a change.
- Describe the way you recently handled an on the job emergency.
- What do you find most challenging about making a hard decision?

Accommodating – Tendency to be friendly, cooperative, agreeable. To be a team person.

Job Pattern 5-7 Score 8

On the Accommodating scale Ms. Vinson is above the designated profile for this position. This suggests that her willingness to productively challenge the opinions of others is less than the position typically requires and that this could cause a problem. Discussions with her should explore the possibility the position may require a more direct style than is usual for her.

- When, if ever, is conflict a positive factor in the workplace?
- Describe a time when you were able to be personally supportive and reassuring to a person who needed a friend.
- When a co-worker is wrong about a work issue, what is the best way to confront him or her?
- What is more productive for the team: communication, group unity, or something else? Explain.

Independence – Tendency to be self-reliant, self-directed, to take independent action and make own decisions.

Job Pattern 5-7 Score 4

On the Independence scale Ms. Vinson is below the designated Profile for this Job Match Pattern. This suggests that her tendency is to seek guidance from supervisors is greater than that of successful individuals in this position. She could have a problem with the capability to work independently and resourcefully. Discussions with her should explore the possibility that for Ms. Vinson, the position may be overly challenging and could lead to frustration and a reduction in her level of performance.

- Describe a time when you were under pressure to make an immediate decision (perhaps without the aid of a supervisor or a manager.) Did you take action IMMEDIATELY or were you more DELIBERATE and slow?
- What is the best thing about clearly defined objectives or goals?
- Have you ever found yourself in a situation with little structure? How did you resolve your work and achieve goals?
- How do you prefer your supervisor to explain his or her directions or instructions?

OCCUPATIONAL INTERESTS

Enterprising – Indicated interest in activities associated with persuading others and presenting plans.

Activities that involve entrepreneurial pursuits are preferred most by those who match the Interest Pattern for this position. However, the activities associated with the Enterprising theme are not among Ms. Vinson's primary three interest themes and may not motivate her as much.

- What is most frustrating about leading or persuading others?
- How do you feel about using skills of persuasion to convince others to do what you need?
- How often do you take the role of a persuasive leader in a group; why so often? (or so infrequently)
- Describe some motivational aspects of entrepreneurial activities you have experienced before.
